Francis McNerhany delivered an address, which was one of the most eloquent and interesting the society has been favored with. The announcement was made of a complimentary entertainment to Mr. J. J. McNerhany, one of the principal members of the Choral Union, which is to be given on Tuesday, Nov. 21, at Carroll Institute Hall. The Choral Union presented a brilliant programme, the following being among the most interesting numbers: Plano solo, "Girls of America." Miss Gracie Menchive; song, "The Old Rustle Bridge," Mr. J. J. McNerhany; recitation, "Bjou's Story," Master Percy Leach; solo, "White Winzs," Miss May Anderson; recitation, "Travessy on Romee and Juliet," Mr. Sol Stein; solo, "Kathleen Mayourneen," Miss Olive Dwyer; reading, Mr. J. ANOTHER WEEK

GENUINE BARGAINS

PALAIS ROYAL!

Warm weather still continues, and so long as it does the sale of winter goods will deteriorate. Our stock of winter goods has to be sold, warm weather or cold; thus we are forced to quote another week of special prices, against our will, perhaps, but we are wise enough not to wait until the "old fogy" merchants reduce prices.

We Reduce Prices To-Day
